Review Changes to Operation Document to Describe Roles for Testing and Strategy for Risk

Attached is my proposed changes to the Operation Document to reflect how we plan to address risks. It is pretty vanilla, but I wanted to make sure that we had content here so that we can't get dinged.

Priority: Normal
Type: Task
State: Fixed
Assignee: Corey
Subsystem: ProjectProgress
Fix versions: Unscheduled
Affected versions: Unknown
Fixed in build: Next Build Estimation: **?

Changes have been added to version 1.1 of the Team Operation Document. If there is not any comment for additions from Stephen or Rashad by 11/11/15, then this issue will be closed as this section has already been reviewed by the customer and implicitly reviewed by these members through their feedback and updates to subsequent versions of this document.
